

Lets-Plot Geoservices Terms and Conditions

Overview

Lets-Plot library provides access to the following geoservices through the Lets-Plot API, backed by JetBrains infrastructure:

- Basemap tiles service: enables rendering of interactive maps online or in-app.
- Geocoding service: provides geocoding and reverse geocoding of spatial features.

Where does the map data and the geocode data come from?

Lets-Plot geoservices use data from OpenStreetMap.

OpenStreetMap is open data, created by OpenStreetMap contributors, and available under the Open Data Commons Open Database License (ODbL).

Terms & Conditions of Service

Your use of the Lets-Plot Geoservices and API (collectively, “the Service”) is governed by these terms and conditions. (“Terms”). You must accept these terms in order to use the Service. You may accept the Terms either by clicking “accept”, “agree”, or a similar indication where this option is made available, or by using the Service, in which case your use of the Service is considered your acceptance of these Terms.

As a condition of accessing the Service, you also agree to the terms of the JetBrains privacy policy.

1. Parties

“You” refers to the person or entity (or both) using the Service. If you accept these Terms on behalf of a company, organization or other entity, you must have, and by accepting the Terms you represent that you have, full legal authority to bind your company, organization or such other entity to these Terms.

You may not use the Service, access the Service or any associated Content, and you may not accept these Terms, if you are not of legal age in the country of your official address or you are not authorized to form a binding legal agreement on behalf of yourself and/or your company;

2. Use of the Service

JetBrains grants you a non-exclusive, non-transferable, worldwide license to access the Service and to download Content provided by the Service (as defined below) when used as intended and in compliance with these Terms.

JetBrains may, in its sole discretion, limit or prohibit your use of the Service for any reason, including but not limited to violation of any requirements or restrictions in these Terms, including those listed in Section 4.

3. Content

The Service allows you to access, view, and download certain data and information, including but not limited to map data, geocoding information, reverse geocoding of spatial features, and other data created and/or provided by JetBrains and others (the “Content”).

You understand and agree to the following:

(a) By using the Service, you do not receive any ownership, and JetBrains and/or its licensors retain all ownership rights in the Content. You may not use, access or allow others to use or access the Content in any manner not permitted under the Terms.

(b) Certain Content is provided under individual licenses, including:

(1) Basemap and geocoding content provided by JetBrains are provided under the CC BY 4.0 Creative Commons license.

(2) Data from OpenStreetMap is licensed under the ODbL.

Your use of this content is subject to all additional restrictions in these licenses, and by using the Service you agree to abide by those licenses.

Some other content, such as 3rd party basemaps and tiles, may be available for use with the Service and the Content, and may have its own separate terms that control use of that other content when used in conjunction with the Service and Content.

4. Restrictions

You may not:

- (a) access or use the Service through any technology or means other than through the Lets-Plot Geoservices API or other means explicitly authorized by JetBrains;
- (b) mass download the Content using automated or non-automated techniques, create bulk feeds of the Content, or allow others to do so, or use the Service in any way that gives you or any other person access to mass downloads, bulk feeds, or any similar aggregation of the Content;
- (c) pre-download or pre-cache the Content for offline use, including on mobile devices;
- (d) copy, translate, modify, or make derivative works of the Content or any part thereof other than as allowed by these Terms or the third-party licenses in Section 3;
- (e) redistribute, sublicense, rent, publish, sell, assign, lease, market, transfer, or otherwise make the Service or any Content available to third parties;
- (f) reverse engineer, decompile or otherwise attempt to extract the source code of the Service or any part thereof, unless this is expressly permitted or required by applicable law; or
- (g) delete, obscure, or modify any warning, notice (including but not limited to copyright or other similar notice), or link that appears in the Content or in any interface to the Service, including the Lets-Plot Geoservices API.
